Blue Skies:
The Common Sense Curriculum

Our Curriculum Materials Go Beyond Traditional Education

Phillip Roy, Inc. believes that education needs to:

- Go beyond traditional skills.
- Prepare students to earn a living by increasing their vocational skills, entrepreneurship skills, academic skills, social skills and life skills.
- Be relevant to the students' needs and interests.
- Help students succeed in becoming productive citizens.
- Help students live successful and productive lives.
- Increase the students' self-esteem and feelings of self-worth.

All of our curriculum materials follow the basic principles of successful learning:

1. Learning needs to be activity-based.
2. Learning needs to include cooperative learning opportunities.
3. Learning is dependent on situations that are meaningful to the student.
4. Learning needs to address attitudes and values.
5. Learning needs to develop critical thinking skills.
6. Learning is affected by developmental stages
7. Learning is affected by evaluation strategies.
8. Learning is dependent on developing communication skills.
9. Learning is reinforced through integrated experiences.
10. Learning needs to be promoted without any bias.
